The Remaking of Coillemore House	17

WELCOME!

We're delighted you have chosen to stay here and hope you have a wonderful time.

We set out to create the ideal base to explore the land and seascapes of Wester Ross and Skye, sample fantastic local cuisine, enjoy an array of invigorating outdoor activities, relax in the spacious rooms and peaceful garden and soak in the hot tub and sauna. We hope you enjoy all of those things here and, like us, feel “inspired by nature”.

All the essential instructions you need for the house are on pages 6-7. The rest of this guide may be helpful for planning your stay or just handy to dip into at your leisure while you're here.

On arrival you'll find a welcome pack with a few gifts to get you going. The first dram of your trip is on us!

We will normally be in touch (via Whatsapp) ahead of your stay to check preferences and timings, but just in case, the primary contact during your stay is Simon: +447956498172 (alternatively James: +447525044500)

A SPECIAL PLACE

From the start of our journey with Coillemore House, our guiding principle was to be “inspired by nature.” As you take in your surroundings both inside and around the house, perhaps you’ll feel the same.

The name Coillemore is the anglicised version of Coille Mhòr, meaning “Great Wood” in Gaelic. This is the name of the wood directly above the house, part of the National Trust-owned Balmacara estate, a traditional Highland crofting estate.

In its own words, the Balmacara estate is: "an outstanding example of a Highland crofting estate with the flower rich meadows of Duirinish and Kirkton, the oak and birch woodlands of the Celtic rainforest at Coille Mhòr and the crannog on the dragonfly laden Loch Achaidh na h-Inich.

The landscape supports a rich range of habitats and species including migrant birds, otters off the coastline, pine martens, red squirrels, 300 types of moth and butterflies.”

We are fortunate to enjoy a commanding location above Balmacara Square offering sweeping views over Loch Alsh and the south-eastern corner of Skye. Our south-facing windows enjoy a generous panorama over to the Munro Beinn Sgritheall on the Glenelg Peninsula and beyond as far as remote Ladhar Bheinn in Knoydart. The dominant peak on the right is Sgurr na Coinnich on Skye.

The Coille Mhòr, the forest immediately above the house, is a rare remaining example of Britain's temperate Celtic rainforest. It is both a Special Area of Conservation and a Site of Special Scientific Interest, due to its oakwoods and internationally important rare lichens, notably the Norwegian specklebelly and abundant Climatis Vitalba (aka Old Man's Beard or Traveller's Joy). Both are indicators of great air quality.

The name Coille Mhòr recalls the original ancient Great Wood of Caledonia that stretched across Scotland after the last ice age. It is a magical area to slow down, disconnect and wander through, with abundant lichens and mosses clinging to the trees and many varieties of flower flourishing in the fertile microclimate.

"Scotland's rainforest is a rare and endangered habitat. It's as important as tropical rainforest, but even rarer. The conditions to support this coastal temperate rainforest occur on less than 1% of the globe's surface. Scotland's rainforest, also known as Atlantic woodland and Celtic rainforest, is a special kind of woodland, containing trees dripping with lichens and rocks clad with abundant mosses...

The Coille Mhòr is one example of these diverse ancient woodlands. The mosaic of habitats has been influenced by generations of crofters as they grazed their animals in the woods. These predominantly oak and birch woodlands have a magical feel, with thick carpets of mosses, colourful fungi and glorious ferns."

PRACTICAL ESSENTIALS

FINDING YOUR WAY: Coillemore House is located here. Allow 1.5-2 hours driving from Inverness and 3.5-4.5 hours from Glasgow or Edinburgh, although this can vary by time of day, season and number of stops.

CHECK-IN: is from 4.30pm. We usually leave the front door open for your arrival with the keys on the hall table inside. Alternatively, if necessary, we will provide you the code for the rear door safe.

CHECK-OUT: is by 10am on your day of departure to give us time to prepare the house for the next guests. You can leave the front door open and the keys on the hall table. Kindly let us know if you intend to leave earlier than 10am. We appreciate you leaving the house in reasonable condition and emptying any rubbish before leaving. Removing sheets and pillow cases from beds before check-out is also much appreciated.

WIFI: Coillemore Ground Floor – no password. The landline (01599 566 776) can be used for incoming calls only, unless in emergency, in which case call 999 in the first instance and then notify us immediately.

HEATING & HOT WATER: these are pre-set. There are thermostats in the main hallway and first floor landing to adjust the temperature for each floor. Please allow some time for changes to take effect. We recommend to close window shutters after dark in cold weather to retain heat and to bring slippers for your comfort.

FIREPLACE: We provide some complimentary firelighters, kindling, wood and matches. Additional supplies are available locally from Co-op in Kyle. Please take good care when using the fire. Sweep any ash through the griddle before lighting the fire, keep all personal items at a safe distance and use the fireguard.

WOOD BURNING STOVE: Open the door for 20 mins before use. To light, add 3 lightly scrunched sheets of paper into the chamber, close the door and keep the vents open. Let the paper burn fully, this heats the chimney and stops smoke blowback. Then light as usual with firelighters, kindling and logs (no coal please).

EV CHARGER: This is located on the wall outside the kitchen on the north (road) side of the house.

AUDIO-VISUAL: There is a Bluetooth speaker in the main living room, plus a second Bluetooth speaker in the kitchen. The second living room has a smart TV you can use with your own streaming logins or attach your devices. There is also a second Android smart TV in our downstairs bedroom.

FIRE SAFETY: There are fire extinguishers located in the ground floor hallway and first floor landing. There is also a fire blanket in the drawers by the kitchen sink.

FIRST AID: This is in the drawer next to the kitchen sink. Please let us know if we need to replace anything.

SMOKING: There is a strict no smoking policy inside. When smoking outside, please be sure to dispose of any cigarettes safely to avoid any fire risk (especially in dry conditions).

WASTE: Collection is on Mondays, with alternate weeks for recycling and non-recycling. The bins are outside the front gate. Normal recycling (cardboard, paper, recyclable plastics, metal tins) goes in the blue bin. All other rubbish goes in black rubbish bags in the black bin. Food waste should go with general waste as unfortunately there is no separate collection in the area.

GLASS: Please do not put glass in any of the bins, instead collect it separately and dispose of it in the glass recycling bins at the bottom of Balmacara square on your departure.

MAINTENANCE: Being a rural period property, unforeseen essential maintenance may occasionally be necessary. If you spot any urgent issue, please contact us and we'll deal with it ASAP. Please do not try to fix something yourself unless it is very simple. We will always keep any disruption to the absolute minimum.

BREAKAGES: These can happen - please just let us know so we can replace them quickly. We won't charge for the occasional broken wine glass, only if there is more material damage.

ROOMS

BEDROOMS: Beds will be made up as requested prior to your stay, with fresh linen and towels. If you would like additional bed linen or towels, please let us know ASAP and we will try to accommodate that if we can. Most of the bedrooms have hairdryers.

KITCHEN: You should find it stocked with washing up liquid, dishwasher tablets, rubbish bags, kitchen roll and cleaning materials. Appliances include an electric range cooker, dishwasher, microwave and Nespresso machine. Instruction manuals are in the bottom drawer by the kitchen sink – please check if in any doubt.

UTILITY ROOM: You are welcome to use the washing machine, tumble dryer, drying rack, extra sink and storage. Please remove any muddy shoes and wet clothes here before going further inside.

BATHROOMS: There is one on the ground floor, two on the first floor and an extra one on the top floor if necessary. There are also separate toilets on the ground and first floor. The downstairs bathroom, which has a disabled access shower, is located behind the utility room.

TOILETS: Please flush only toilet paper in the toilets. Do not flush sanitary towels, cotton wool, nappy liners or anything similar. A blocked septic tank is no fun for anyone!

BASEMENT: This is not in use unless specifically pre-agreed, so the door is deliberately locked.

PATIO: This can be accessed via the utility room rear door. The kitchen window doors can sometimes be opened by arrangement on special occasions, but due to damage from accidental misuse they are usually kept locked. There is also gas barbecue available outside - please clean this after using it.

GARDEN: We hope you enjoy spending time in the garden, whatever the season. Please take care as there can be uneven or slippery surfaces. In the summer months, if the weather is still, remember to close doors and windows after dusk to avoid any midges getting inside. If we need to attend to parts of the garden during your stay, we will always respect your privacy and check with you first.

If you have any questions, just ask. Thank you for taking care of the place!

WOOD-FIRED HOT TUB

This is a very popular feature with all our guests. We are happy to pre-heat it so that you can jump in as soon as you arrive. Before you do so, please note that use of the hot tub is at your own risk and kindly read these short instructions so you can enjoy it safely.

HEALTH AND SAFETY ESSENTIALS:

- If you suffer from diabetes, heart disease or any blood pressure issues, check with your doctor first
- Take a shower and ensure you are well hydrated before entering
- Take all due care getting in and out, as surfaces can be slippery
- If you feel drowsy or nauseous, get out immediately
- Never bring breakable drinking glasses or bottles into the hot tub
- Never allow children to control the stove or use the hot tub unattended
- The stove and the flue are hot when in use – please take all due care
- Don't use the hot tub in very rough weather or high winds

FILLING, WARMING AND DRAINING THE HOT TUB:

- Fill with cold water from the yellow hose and outdoor tap, making sure the plug is in place.
- Do not ignite the stove until the tub is full, as this can damage the heater and/or shell. The water level should always be above the hot water outlet while the stove is in use.
- Before starting the fire, remove any remaining ash. Please only use dry wood and firelighters, not coal, wet wood or other materials.
- Stir the water regularly while warming up and otherwise close the lid (also while not in use).
- The recommended water temperature is 37-40°C - check with the thermometer.
- You can adjust the wood burning intensity by letting more or less air into the stove. If necessary, add cold water to cool it down.
- Typical heating time may be 3-4 hours depending on wood quality and outside temperature.
- To drain, remove the plug at the bottom. Always ensure the fire is fully out before starting to drain the tub. Never start draining the tub while still in use as this can damage it and create a fire risk.
- To reuse, clean as required then refill with the yellow hose to above the silver ring outlet to the stove.

SAUNA

Before you use it, we kindly request that you read these instructions to ensure sure you enjoy it safely and appropriately. It is sensible to drink plenty of water before and after use. The use of the sauna is at your own risk. If you suffer from diabetes, heart disease or another condition that affects your blood pressure, check with your doctor before using the hot tub. If you feel sleepy, drowsy or uncomfortable, get out immediately and cool off. The stove is hot when in use – please take all due care. Children should never be left in control of the stove and should never be left unattended while using the sauna

HEATING AND USING THE SAUNA

- Turn on the heater power with the switch outside the sauna near the entrance door small red light should appear on the switch
- Enter the sauna and turn the right-hand control knob at the bottom of the unit to select the number of hours required for heating. 2 to 3 hours should be long enough to fully heat the sauna room.
- If you want to set the sauna to come on while you are out, you can keep turning the knob to second set of numbers on the dial and this is the length of time you wish it to wait until heating starts.
- Use the left-hand dial to control the temperature you wish it to heat to. Near maximum is best for short heats and 6 or 7 for longer heating times
- Light switches for indoor and external lights are located near the door
- On returning to the sauna when it has heated please bring a towel to sit on and take some water to drink during your sauna
- We recommend a maximum of 15 mins per session, please cool down between sessions and if you feel unwell or light headed please refrain from use.
- Add water to the rocks to add moisture to the heat to your liking, Add a ladle at a time.
- After use please turn off the lights and sauna heater power next to the door. Path lights can be turned on and off from the house.
- The hand spray and rain shower head are controlled with the tap located just outside the shower cubicle. Connect the hoses if not already connected, lift the handle on the blue tap and then turn the red handles to start and stop.
- NOTE: In cold weather to prevent freezing of the pipes, the shower and hose may need attaching to the tap before use. Please disconnect and let water drain from pipes after use

LOCAL AMENITIES

Supermarkets:

- Kyle Co-op (7am-10pm) first left after traffic lights in Kyle. It has an ATM.
- Broadford Co-op (7am-10pm) on Skye is bigger but further away. It also has an ATM.
- Spar (7.30am-9pm, Sundays 10am-8pm) in Balmacara for basic items. It also has a post office.

Supermarket deliveries: it is definitely best to book ahead to allow lead time. Tesco delivers to a pick-up point in Kyleakin, just over the Skye bridge. Asda can deliver directly to Coillemore House.

Fishmonger: Fisherman's Kitchen (10am-5.30pm, Tue-Fri) on the harbour slipway in Kyle (turn left at the lights). Good fish & chips and Cullen skink (smoked haddock chowder).

Butcher: Lochalsh Butchers (830am-5.30pm, Tue-Sat, closes 5pm Sat) on left before the lights in Kyle Petrol: In the Highlands journeys can be deceptively long and remote service stations can have prices to match, so it's worth filling up nearby. The nearest is Gulf (9am-5pm but fuel available 24hrs by paying at pump) on the left as you drive into Kyle, about 4 miles drive. There are others in Broadford (12 miles, open 24 hours), Inverinate (9 miles, 7am-8pm except Sundays), Glen Shiel (13 miles, 9am-6pm) or Lochcarron (if you're heading to Torridon or Applecross, 7am-7pm, 10am-5pm Sundays).

Taxis:

- Mavis Private Hire: 07818446962
- Kyle Taxis: 01599 534323

ATMs: It can be useful to have some cash on you rather than rely always on card/contactless, but note that Scottish notes can be tricky to use south of the border. The Co-ops in both Kyle and Broadford (see above) both have ATMs and there are others in Portree and Lochcarron.

Doctor / A&E:

- Kyle Medical Practice (8am-6pm, Mon-Fri) Station Road in Kyle, tel: 01599 534 257
- Dr Mackinnon Memorial Hospital, Broadford, Skye, tel: 01471 822 491

Church: There are churches in Kyle, Plockton, Kyleakin (Church of Scotland), Dornie (Catholic) and Broadford.

Please note that availability and opening times can be subject to seasonal variations. We always recommend to check briefly online, call or reserve as appropriate before heading out.

PUBS with FOOD

Pro-tip: always choose local fish and seafood where you can...

Our Favourites (booking advisable)

- Applecross Inn Destination pub for lunch, good food and beers
- Plockton Hotel Good gastropub for evening meals
- Plockton Inn Specialises in local fish and seafood
- Glenelg Inn Glenelg Scenic drive lunch, good ales and food
- Sligachan Hotel / Seumas Bar, Skye Great views outside, top whisky selection, can get very busy

Other Decent Options:

- Lochcarron Hotel Convenient for dinner on route back from Torridon
- Kintail Lodge Hotel, Kintail Good option if out and about around Kintail
- Cluanie Inn, Glen Shiel Grab a pint after a hike, or lunch after driving up Glen Shiel

FINER DINING

The best food in the wider region – pre-booking is essential, often well ahead of your stay during peak times.

- Three Chimneys, Colbost, northern Skye
- Three Chimneys at Talisker, Carbost, central Skye
- Edinbane Lodge, northern Skye
- Loch Bay, Stein, northern Skye
- Kinloch Lodge, southern Skye
- 1887, The Torridon Hotel, Annat, Loch Torridon

CASUAL EATING OUT

Bear in mind that opening times in the Highlands can be atypical and subject to seasonal variations. We always recommend a quick online check or to call ahead before heading out.

ENHANCING YOUR EXPERIENCE

So that we can help to make your stay even better, let us know as early as you can if any of the below are of interest. Please note we cannot always guarantee availability but will do our best to facilitate them whenever we can. The more advance notice, the better. Costs can vary and will always be advised up front.

In-house Private Chef Dining: We have partnered with local chefs who will come to Coilemore House to cook you a wonderful dinner using freshly sourced seasonal ingredients, served in the dining room. Many of our guests have found this a great stress-free way to enjoy fine local cuisine. Sample menus can be provided. These can also be personalised for special occasions.

Spa Treatments: Relax and unwind with spa and beauty treatments in the comfort of your bedroom, delivered by experienced and discreet practitioners.

Guided Outdoor Activities: These can include mountaineering, climbing, sea kayaking, mountain biking, sailing, riding.

Extra Mid-Stay Cleaning: We may be able to provide a mid-stay clean of 2-4 hours. This can be scheduled for a suitable time when you are out during the day.

Catering: Whether for particular meals, days or the whole week, with some advance notice we may be able to arrange some local catering assistance for your group.

LET'S GO FOR A WALK

This area is truly a walker's paradise. There's something for everyone, from magical local strolls, coastal walks and woodland trails to full mountain traverses.. We are lucky enough to have some of Scotland's finest Munros here, in Kintail, Torridon and Skye. Below is a selection of recommendations, but you can find many others in the Kintail and Skye sections of the Walk Highlands website.

Some mountain hikes can be fairly straightforward, but for more challenging ones it may be best to use a friendly qualified local guide. Their experience will not only keep you in safe hands but also help you learn or refresh your mountain skills, understand the landscape and spot local wildlife. Be aware that mountains can be dangerous in any month of the year, especially in wet, cold or unsettled weather.

RECOMMENDED DAY TRIPS

Our three top ideas for days out:

Skye

The starfish-shaped “Misty Isle” has many fascinating different corners to explore, from Sleat, Elgol and the Cuillin in the southern half to the Storr, Quiraing, Portree, Dunvegan and Talisker in the northern half. There is a lot to cover here, you might actually want to make two trips!

Torridon & Applecross

Majestic mountains, moody lochs, rugged coastline, stunning beaches, sweeping views, plus the epic drive over the famously steep and winding Bealach na Ba, “Pass of the Cattle” over to Applecross, which has a couple of wonderful beaches, the Walled Garden café and excellent Inn. Head round via picturesque Shieldaig, through Glen Torridon and on to the Beinn Eighe National Nature Reserve and beautiful Loch Maree if you have time.

Kintail, Glen Shiel & Glenelg:

Dominated by the dramatic Five Sisters ridge rising straight up from the road, the Kintail National Scenic Area is a wonderful place to explore, a short drive away on the other side of Eilean Donan castle. From Shiel Bridge at the bottom of Glen Shiel (scene of a famous Jacobite battle) you can head over the Mam Ratagan pass into secluded Glenelg, a gorgeous peninsula with fantastic views of Skye. The Sandaig Islands make a great coastal walk and the Glenelg Inn (booking advisable) is an also excellent lunch spot.

GUESTS WITH PETS

We know that your furry friend is an important part of your family. So we welcome up to two well behaved, house-trained pets and can provide some pet-friendly facilities. Pets must be pre-booked – if you didn't select this when booking please just let us know and we can add them to your reservation.

Naturally, we also have to consider our non-pet owning guests, who may have animal-related allergies. There is a £75/charge per pet for the additional cleaning required to ensure we can maintain the property in optimal condition.

We ask pet owners to follow a few simple rules. Thank you in advance for being responsible pet owners. If you have any queries, please just ask.

- Inside the house, pets must be kept in the living rooms, kitchen, rear utility room, hall and front porch on the ground floor only. They are not allowed on any furniture, upstairs or in any of the bedrooms and bathrooms. We recommend using the kitchen and utility room for dogs to spend most indoor time as they are not carpeted.
- Pets must always be properly controlled and supervised in the house and never left unattended either inside or outside, as there are working farms and crofts in the area. Please avoid excessive barking outside.
- Please immediately clean up after pets, both inside and outside the house. Bring a supply of waste bags with you and ensure that all waste is collected and disposed of appropriately.
- If you have been out in wet conditions, please ensure your pet is properly dried off (ideally outside on the patio or in the rear utility room if necessary) before entering the kitchen and the rest of the house
- Please do not use any crockery or other kitchen items to feed pets – bowls are available upon request
- Guests are responsible for any damage or exceptional cleaning caused by pets. If this occurs, please notify us immediately.
- Prohibited dog breeds: Pit bull terriers, Japanese tosa, Dogo argentino, Fila brasileiro, Rottweilers, Staffordshire bull terriers, Chow chows, Alaskan malamutes, Bull mastiffs, English bull terriers, Japanese akita.

Thank you.

THE REMAKING OF COILLEMORE HOUSE

The house was originally built in 1839 by the Matheson Family for the factor of the estate, positioned on the hill to provide the perfect viewpoint to survey the crofts below. After the factor's residence, ownership passed in the 1920s to Alexander and Lady Hamilton, who rented it out as a shooting lodge. In the living room you'll find the short book Twelve Years of Residence on the West Coast of Scotland, James Mason's account of living here for the period 1881-93. He seemed to spend most of that time shooting everything in sight! For much of the second half of the 20th century, Coillemore was then home to the local GP surgery under the Macrae family.

YOUR HOSTS

Your hosts/owners are Simon and James. We were introduced during childhood family holidays to the west coast and retained a love of the highlands. In later years, having introduced our own friends to the joys of this part of the world we decided to make sharing the west coast part of our mission. We acquired the property in early 2019, by which time it needed extensive restoration and still lacked even a mains water connection.

Our aim was to retain as much of Coillemore House's original features and timeless charm while bringing it into the modern era. After many long days and nights with the help of a dedicated and skilled team we completed this painstaking process in July 2021. Coillemore House was fully restored and finally ready to open up to guests. Since then, our guest book and online reviews have become testaments to the many happy times enjoyed here by guests from far and wide.

SIMON

Simon lives locally with his partner Rosalind. He is on hand with local tips and available for any questions during your stay.
